

It's ok

A hard time for lovers, when I noticed that you're gone
We made it through, were covered, what went wrong
A saviour a lovelight, let me feel all this again
A story not ending - in to be friends

Say the words and say them clear - uh we're falling from the sky
And we break in two again - oh tonight

Though I am away, to hard to say "o.k."
to hard to say "I'm sorry"
And it's the word that makes me pray
I know that it's ok - true lovin' went away
The feelings they've been buried and it was hard to feel that love ends

Ohohoho
It's ok - what you see and if it's so hard to make your day
What you see it's just me and I would love to love again
It's ok you can see - there is a love light shining on calm down it's your world - and it's hard to sing your song

A save home can be right - noone beats you there and then You see all you feel alive - like a friend

Say the words and say them clear - uh we're falling from the sky
And we break in two again - oh tonight

Though I am away, to hard to say "o.k."
to hard to say "I'm sorry"
And it's the word that makes me pray
I know that it's ok - true lovin' went away
The feelings they've been buried
and it was hard to feel that love ends

Ohohoho
It's ok - what you see and if it's so hard to make your day
What you see it's just me and I would love to love again
It's ok you can see - there is a love light shining on
calm down it's your world - and it's hard to sing your song
