

Lola, better to fall in love

He was young ready to start his life, heart in his hands his eyes were open wide Back then a feeling caught him deep inside, it was love just like an overdrive

Never thought that it could be so real, never thought to touch her shiny face Could it be, - just a dream, - to redeem and who will win the race? Oh

Lola you're in the eye of a storm, but if you fall now I will catch you - catch you Lola too cold but I'll keep you warm it's better to fall in love, - better to fall in love better to fall better to fall, fall in love, better to fall better to fall in love

better to fall better to fall, fall in love, better to fall better to fall in love

You walk the streets to find your destination, together now you feel alive A happy ending there's no pain but salvation, look deep into each other's eyes

Never thought that it could be so real,
never thought to touch her shiny face
Could it be, just a dream, to redeem but who will win the race? Ohohoh

Lola you're in the eye of a storm,
but if you fall now I will catch you - catch you Lola too cold but I'll keep you warm

better to fall better to fall, fall in love, better to fall better to fall in love
