

Goodbye

You, You treated me like a child
You, You were not by my side
You, You treated me like a toy
But never like your boy

You, You left me for another men
After, promising me love forever
You, You broke my lonely heart
Leaving me in the dark

So Goodbye
I say goodbye
There is no why
And no more try
Just Goodbye Baby
There's no return
When there's no more fun

oh Goodbye
I say goodbye
There is no why
And no more try
Just Goodbye Lady
You broke my heart
I'll make brand new start

You, You Gave me lies and tears
You, You gave me pain and fears
Thinking that love was a game
It'll never be the same

Now
You realise i've walked away
That's why I can hear you crying
But now we are not on the same way
I never forget anything
