

(She's a) Gambler

You're dancing like a queen i fell so lonely tonight i'm still loosing the fight, tonight queen of broken hearts i'm still on my own since you let me down so long ago
(let me down, so long ago)

She's a gambler
and she's breaking my heart such a liar who's breaking a part tonight
she's a gambler
tonight

you're the princess of love burning in the stars above i 'm crying all the tears in my fears (in my fears, i do that) Many broken dreams
you don't care about me playing with men over and over again
